Carranza to Fall, Says Ex-Mexican Envoy Here

Young Men Will Drive Military Tyranny and Brute Force Out of the Country

Force Out of the Country President Carranza's government in Mexico will be overthrown in a few days, according to Ramon P. de Negri, former Mexican Consul General in New York, who last night announced that he had joined the Sonora revolution.
Young men, who are heading a popular movement to drive "brute force and military tyranny" out of Mexico, will oust the Carranza government unless the President immediately renounces his authority and turns it ever to a National Assembly, Mr. de Negri said.
He declared that sixteen out of the twenty-seven states of Mexico already have joined the revolution.
Mr. de Negri, who said he resigned his post as Consul General on April 16, after he had made vain attempts to induce Carranza and Ignacio Bonillas, formerly Mexican Ambassador at Washington, to desist from the use of military force in suppressing the pecople of Sonora, announced that he leaves
